One of the largest artistic endeavors ever undertaken in Frederick will happen this fall!

Artomatic@Frederick, presented in partnership with the Frederick Arts Council and Frederick County Public Schools, will transform the 27,000 square foot former FCPS Central Office at 115 East Church Street into an exciting and incredibly diverse arts event that is free and open to the public from September 28th through November 6th.

Artomatic@Frederick is an independently organized and licensed Artomatic® event headed by volunteers. The program is designed to create community, generate an audience for the arts and expand economic development through an unjuried event featuring the creative works of hundreds of artists in a multitude of art forms, including the visual arts, theater, music, film, poetry, and more.

The event is expected to feature over 500 artists in five weeks. Organizers anticipate 10,000 to 15,000 people to visit the facility over the course of the event.
